GUWAHATI, NOV 19: The new Rs 2000 denomination currency notes released by the RBI are not even ten days old, but the fake version of the same has apparently already come into circulation.

Thirty-two fake currency notes of Rs 2000 denomination were recovered from the possession of a woman at Samaluguri, Narayanpur in Lakhimpur district of north-eastern Assam on Friday.

Police have seized the fake Rs 2000 currency notes which bore the same serial number and picked up the woman for questioning. The woman claimed that she had been provided these fake currency notes by one Abhijit Das whom she had engaged to exchange demonetised currency notes in the bank.

The woman claimed that Abhijit Das whom she met at a bank recently, had offered her his service to exchange Rs 65,000 in demonetised currency notes she was carrying to the bank.

Abhijit Das came to her residence on Thursday night and gave her Rs 65,000 'exchanged notes' - 32 notes of Rs 2000 denominations and two notes of Rs 500 denomination. The woman had engaged Abhijit Das on an earlier occasion.

All the thirty two Rs 2000 denomination notes were declared fake by local bank officials on Friday.

The police is now on the

Rs 1000 notes and the individuals if they believe in negotiating table. He maintained that the Centre government on phone to the talk at the eleven hour.

Education Minister has high hope in changing state's Higher education with RUSA

OUR BUREAU

IMPHAL, NOV 19: State Education Minister Kh Ratankumar today stressed on how the new scheme of the government of India called Rastriya Uchchattar Shiksha Abhiyan (RUSA) will bring a tremendous change to the Higher Education Scenario of the state.

Speaking to the inaugural function of the one day Media workshop on RUSA, the National Higher Education Mission and the state of Higher Education in Manipur, the Education Minister acknowledge the present state of the Higher Education centers.

"We know our colleges do not have proper infrastructures as well as adequate number of teachers, but with the coming of RUSA we are sure that we would be able to bring tremendous changes to the state of affairs of the colleges in the State", Kh Ratan said.

A technical session was also held in the afternoon with Prof. L. Sadananda as the moderator and Additional director Education (J) Yaiskul, Nodal Officer RUSA, Oliver Monsang and Senior Journalist Ak Sanaton as the resource persons.

Vineet Joshi IAS, Commissioner, higher & Technical education, Th Chitra Devi, IAS, Director (Univ& Hr. education) and A Mobi, President Editors' Guild Manipur beside the Educations Minister Kh Ratankumar also share the dice in the inaugural function.

RUSA is a pilot scheme of the Government of India introduced for improvement of the Higher education sectors of the country in October 2013.

"Since I take charge as the Education Minister, implementation of RUSA has been considered as top priority", Ratan said and added that after the implementation of RUSA in 2015 many basic requirements of the colleges have been filled.

The Government of India cannot directly fund for purpose of the Higher education as it has to be through the University Grant Commission (UGC), certain pre-requisite sectors need to be established for the implementation of RUSA. Ratan further added that the state government had passed a Bill for setting up of State Higher Education Council, which is the implementing agency of RUSA Scheme. → More on Page 3

Newspapers to hit s

NEWMAI NEWS NETWORK IMPHAL, NOV 19:

Newspapers failed to hit the stands in Manipur for the second consecutive day on Saturday, November 19, following newspaper owners decided to keep publication shut due to non-availability of lower denomination notes in transacting their business from Thursday.

Newspaper Publishers' Association, All Manipur Newspaper Sales and Distributors Association organized a sit-in protest at Keishampat Yumjao Larenbi Mamang here demanding the government to facilitate dispensing of adequate lower denomination notes to run their business.

One of the protesters felt
