Mon, August 7

With an eye to promote development and to create platform for the under privilege students of Mon district Parliamentary Secretary for Higher Education and SCERT, DEO Nukhu initiated a comprehensive approach to open a Model College in Wakching town in Mon District, where he had a meeting with the public of Wakching area on 6th August 2014.

While addressing the people of Wakching, Nukhu said, "My mind was convinced to open a college in Wakching town because of these many reasons:- It is one of the biggest village in the Konyak community, oldest administrative centre in Mon District, the first Christian village and it fits the criteria to open a college"

Nukhu said that the less opportunists for higher education, the local students who cannot afford to go outside for further studies, the isolation that many students face will be broken by introducing the Model College at Wakching and added that 'it is in you to have the sense of ownership, protect , support and make this project a successful one'.

Introducing the contractor Arep Changkija to the public, Nukhu urged them to work together sincerely for smooth completion of the project. Nukhu also explained the pattern of funding under RUSA project. Tittered saying that seeing is believing Nukhu said he would like to visit the place again to see the implementation of the project. Expressing his gratitude, MLA, Y.M.Yollow thanked the Department for taking the initiative and advised the public to extend cooperation to the Department and the contractor for smooth implementation of the project. He also stressed on the sense of ownership that Nukhu has mentioned.

The meeting was chaired by Deputy Commissioner Angau I. Thou (IAS) while invocation prayer was proposed by Pastor, Wakching Village Baptist Church and welcome address was delivered by P. Ayong. Special number was presented by T. W. Manching while vote of thanks was proposed by C. Nyangpong and benediction by Longme Deacon.
